WHAT IS THE SOLUTION?

September

Be present.

Let the day flow with grace.

Expect nothing. Give thanks.

Surrender. Be open.

Speak only kindness.

Impart only love.

Never forget you are not alone.

Give so that you may receive.

See goodness in others.

MY SECRET TO HAPPINESS IS VERY SIMPLE.
I GOT SOBER.

Q: Why did the accountant do so well in AA?

A: He was already a friend of bills.

A few ex-drunks are telling war stories after a meeting

“There was this bar in Japan where they bring you warm Saki and massage your shoulders while you drink as much as you want,” said the first.

“Oh, that’s nothing. I was at a Hotel in Mumbai where you’d buy one whiskey and they’d refill the glass twice more - all while pretty girls danced for you.”

“Heck,” said the third, “There’s this bar in Dublin where as soon as they find out you’re a foreigner, they pay for all your drinks and then, after you’re pretty well gone, they provide you with a free hotel room.

“No way! Did that actually happen to you?”

“Well... not me. But it happened to my sister.”

I cannot, nor do I want to, imagine living a life where I use drugs and alcohol. The things that interest me and grab me by my soul are deeper than that now and I am grateful for the chance to pursue them once again.

I'm looking for something each day that is lasting, something spiritual. I am learning to rest in the present moment and to purposely follow our conditional statement of "One day at a time." Here I am finding what I have been looking for, perhaps forever.

I no longer look at recovery merely as a necessary process of healing from addiction. Now, I see it as a spiritual path, a daily orientation that lasts a lifetime. It deserves a capital 'R'. Yes...Recovery.

You cannot walk this path and stay stuck. You will learn and grow. You will also make mistakes. However, rather than defaulting to the addiction of blaming and complaining, you pause, breathe, and look for the lesson in all of life's challenges. As such, you will progress, albeit humbly.

A friend of mine who plays tennis once told me... "Lauri, your tennis will be much better if you try to be unspectacular!" It's one of the greatest ideas, I've ever considered and I try to remember it every day.

Presence is unspectacular. Sitting with emotions rather than reacting to them is unspectacular. Meditating is unspectacular. Equanimity is unspectacular. And yet, the most spectacular things unfold for us when we cultivate these unspectacular habits.

Today, I am working with what is - the joys and the challenges. I am so grateful for it fully engaging with each present moment.

Sherepta

Hi All,

I am very excited about the upcoming Lefty's float and District 3 BBQ joint event. I have been hoping to make connections like this with Districts and Groups. Brandi and I had a great meeting with Summer from District 3. We set a timeline for the event, we launch at 2p, food will be served 4:30p to 6p, the raffle will be at 6p with the speaker at 6:30p. This is an informal timeline as we are going with the flow.

We will have volleyball, corn hole, and croquet at Ann Morrison beginning at 3p (after set up is done). The next event in the planning stage is the Intergroup Workshop, I also would like to have the Joe and Charlie tapes event if we could figure out a way to do it within our budget.

I will also be soliciting interest in arts and crafts fair to be held in mid to late November. I would hold it earlier but I will be in Texas from October 27 – November 3 so I pushed it out some. And, of course, it depends on interest.

That is about it for now.

Sherepta

DISTRICT 5 PRESENTS

WHAT: Workshop on why the Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous are important to our fellowship.

- Traditions 7-12 will be presented at this workshop.

WHEN: Saturday, September 21st @ 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

WHERE: Boise New Hope Church of the Nazarene
8585 W. Overland Road, Boise, ID 83709
(park & enter around back of church)

WHY: The Twelve Traditions of A.A. resulted from a need for guidance in our growing organization. Co-founder Bill W. wrote them in the 1940s to address the various questions that arose among A.A. groups. These principles continue to provide A.A. groups with a framework for success. The Traditions provided guidelines (not rules) that would help A.A. groups then and in the future. They addressed relationships with the outside world and within Alcoholics Anonymous itself. A.A. groups continue to use The Twelve Traditions to strive toward that group ideal of unity so that the groups may continue to carry the hope to still-suffering alcoholics around the world.
